“Living in America: An Exhibition in Four Acts” at the International Print Center New York

IPCNY has enlisted the female curatorial platform Assembly Room, founded by Natasha Becker, Paola Gallio, and Yulia Topchiy, to curate its fall group show highlighting the power of printmaking in these uncertain times. The show will run in two parts, with thematic sections on outrage and love opening this week, and works based on the themes of hope and care going on display on November 11, following a brief intermission. Featured artists include Swoon, Vanessa German, and Elektra KB.
