

FORT GANSEVOORT

NEW YORK

The 10 Best Art Shows of 2020

Jordan Casteel, Noah Davis, and anything you could see in person.

By Jerry Saltz – December 11, 2020

Zoya Cherkassky, Black Chuppah, 2020. Courtesy of the Artist and Fort Gansevoort

10. “Zoya Cherkassky: Lost Time” (Fort Gansevoort)

Online exhibitions got a lot of art lovers through this year. The best example I saw was organized by Alison M. Gingeras, one of the sharpest, most independent curators and critics out there. It was an exhibition of Kiev-born, Tel Aviv–based Cherkassky’s paintings of old-world Jews and Russians, punk kids, and scenes that conjure a high-tech interconnected shtetl. Mazel tov and l’chaim.