Initiated at Indulkana in the APY Lands by artists Kaylene Whiskey and Vicki Cullinan, Iwantja Young Women's Film Project is a celebration of pop culture and a way to engage with younger women in the community. "I'm from the generation that grew up with Coca-Cola and TV as well as Tjukurpa [cultural stories] and bush tucker, so I like to have a bit of fun with combining those two different worlds," says Whiskey.
